MANY REGISTERED IN CITY TUESDAY

Registration Will Exceed That home to Little Rock, accompanied by Of Last Year.

With Only Few Local Offices to Interest Them, Republicans Came

If the Democrats were busy the first day of registration, the Republican organization made up for lost time yesterday and got out 44 more votes than their opponents. The registration fell off from last year by 354 votes. The Democrats this year CURRENCY ADVOCATED BY THE where she had spent the summer. have a state primary to stimulate them, while the Republicans have not even a congressional candidate to vote for, and yet the Democratic registration fell 140.

A comparative statement for the days of each year shows how the situation stands:

1906 1,984 1,386 163 1905 2,124 1,626 137

Both party organizations have been hard at work, and despite tricks that were vain, notably a few illegal registrations in Glauber's precinct, the day passed quietly. In some precincts the Republican workers went home at supper time, having registered their strength.

As usual the Democrats registered a great many who will support the Republican ticket. Last year the registration showed a Democratic plurality of 598, but the majority of the Republican candidates won by pluralities ranging around 200.

Total resigtration was 3,533 as against 3,887 last year.

It's Fuel that's Expensive—Not the Stove

A Cheap, putty-jointed stove will waste more than its Original Cost in Fuel every winter.

As you know, fully one-half the carbon available for heat in soft coal is gas-the entire gas supply used for fuel and illumination in many cities and towns being made from common soft coal. The ordinary stove in burning soft coal allows this gas-half of the fuel to pass up the chimney unburned, thus wasting it as a heat producer.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove, by means of the patented Hot Blast draft and other patented features, making air-tight joints without the use of stove putty, distills this gas from the upper surface of the coal, utilizing it as a heat producer along with the fixed carbon or coke in the or lignite do the work of $9.00 worth of hard coal. Your old stove and imitation Hot Blast are not air-tight, do not save the escaping gases and do not give you a warm house at night, because they are made with putty joints. You cannot afford to say to yourself, "My old stove will have to do this winter." The old stove is eating up the price of a new stove every year. Not only that, but on top of the cost is the unsatisfactory result it gives. It is always out the coldest morning.

Even Heat Day and Night-Fire Never Out

Cole's Hot Blast is so perfect in construction that fire will keep all night, and when the draft is opened in the morning will burn two or three hours with the fuel put in the night before. No other stove does this. Fire, therefore, never goes out, and the rooms are kept at an even temperature all the time. Burns hard coal, soft coal, slack, lignite or wood.

I—We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal or slack.

2-We guarantee Cole's Hot Blast to use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with same heating surface.

3-We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning, with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.

4-We guarantee that the stove will hold fire with soft coal 36 hours without attention.

5-We guarantee a uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.

6-We guarantee every stove to remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.

7-We guarantee the feed door to be smoke and dust proof.

The above guarantee is made with the understanding that the stove be considered according to directions, and set un with a good fire.

For Hard Coal — Saves Half

The extent of unburned gases in hard coal is shown by opening the magazine cover of a base burner when the extra oxygen supplied fills the entire stove with flaming gas.

The fact that no stove putty is used to make air-leaking joints, gives you perfect control over the drafts on Cole's Hot Blast. The slow, economical combustion, and the large, positive radiating surface make it the greatest fuel-saving, hard coal stove made.

Would You Lose $50.00 in Fuel to Save $1.00 on the Cost of Your Stove?

That is what you do when you buy a cheaply constructed, putty jointed, showy made imitation stove. Like all successful inventions, Cole's Original Hot Blast has many inferior imitations, avoid them.

They all lack the patented features and careful construction, which make the Original Hot Blast a great success. not stay tight, and soon open seams and cracks which render them worthless as fire keepers. See the name "Cole's Hot Blast from Chicago" on the feed door. None genuine without it.

Mothers, Try the New

A Sale for the Mothers' Benefit Friday Only

We want the mothers of Paducah to know what a splendid department in every way is our Children's Department, and the big bargains we are giving in everything for boys every day. Some days, 'tis true, the bargains are greater than others, and the mothers should learn to look out for these days, as they mean money to them.

Friday, for instance, is one of the big days, and here are the offerings, which are indeed good ones : Boys' black ribbed 15c stockings

All sizes from 51/2 to 9 Boys' fleeced lined underwear, 35c a garment, Friday 21c .210

It's little trouble to look for these things, but they are big to find. This is a store of big values.

"Real Love Letters of a Real Girl"

"I am not going to beat the big drum of sentiment and make a wailful noise. Nothing is so dead as a dead infatuation. The more a person has been infatuated, the more he resents an attempt to galvanize the dull, dead thing into life. I am wise, you see, to the end. And reasonable, too, I hope. And brave. And brave, I tell you. Do you think I will be a coward, and And brave, I tell you. Do you think I will be a coward, and cry out? I make you a present of everything; of the love and happy thoughts, of the pleasant dreams and plans, of the little prayers sent up, and the blessings called down—there were a great many every day—of the kisses, and all the dear sweetness. Take it all. I want nothing from you in return. But do you suppose that, having given you all this, I am going to give you my soul as well? To moan my life away, my beautiful life? You are not worth it. You are not worth anything, hardly. You are unstable, invertebrate. My life shall be splendid in spite of you. You shall not cheat me of one single chance of heaven."—(From Fraulein Schmidt and Mr. Anstruher in heaven."-(From Fraulein Schmidt and Mr. Anstruther in the November Delineator).

Supt. Billington All Right.

"Who's dead in Superintendent Billington's family?" was the startling question going the rounds in the court house. No one knew, but some one had seen crepe on the door and was evidence enough. The "crepe" proved to be an inoffensive black mail box which the superintendent had just nailed to his door and over it he had placed a small white card telling that he was out of the city for the day. Glancing up from the ground floor to his office door above, the card and mail box presents the appearance of crepe unless minutely studied.

WAS PAYMENT OF ABOUT $7,000 ON SMITH'S PAPER.

Roy Smith Claims That Brother's Paper Will Be Honored and Is Given Time.

Louisville, Oct. 17 .- William Daugherty, one of the directors of the Boston Banking company, said last night that payment on about $7,000 of the new paper issued by the Smiths had been refused.

"Paper representing about $4, 500, issued by C. A. Smith, father of W. B. Smith, has been honored," he said, "but the new paper issued by W. B. Smith has been dishonored,' he said.

Roy Smith, who was cashier of the Boston Banking company, and who cashed drafts in the interest of his brother, W. B. Smith, for $11,-500, is still in Boston. According to Mr. Daugherty, Roy Smith continues to maintain that the money he paid out of the bank's funds on his brother's drafts will be made good. He has declared from the first that there was no intention of wrongdoing on his part when he cashed the

"I don't know just what will be done," Mr. Daugherty said. "We are giving the Smiths a little more time in which to make good the amount paid out on the paper issued by W. B. Smith. It may be that an eastern bonding company that went the bond of Roy Smith, our former cashier, will be called upon to make good the $7,000 still outstanding. In any event, the bank's depositors will be protected, no matter what the outcome may be."

American Cousin-"I reckon the sons of some of our millionaire. have a pretty hard problem to solve when they can't decide whether to go into business and live up to their father's reputations, or go into society, and live them down."-Punch.

Forget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries spasmodically. A bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge never fails to cure. Every mothes should give her baby White's Cream Vermifuge. So many times when the baby is pale and fretful the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to his cheeks and laughter to his eyes. Give it a trial.

Sold by all druggists.

Inquisitive-"If, as you say, you know this man to be a rake, why did you invite him to your house? Henpeck-"Heavens! man, I never dreamed he would elope with my daughter; I thought he would carry off my wife."

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE
Showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Balard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc. A. C. Pitts, Rodessa, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment."

Sold by all druggists.

"With all your wealth are you not afraid of the poletariat?" asked the delver in sociological problems. "No, I ain't" snapped Mr. Newrich. "We boil all our drinking water."-Phila

A happy thought, Mrs. Austin's Pancakes for breakfast, Ready in a jiffy.

CRISIS OF BIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia R. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydia E. moment, bringing in some dishes for Joseph-a tall, stately woman, with great dark eyes, in which the patience of motherhood had succeeded to the soft fire of West Indian love and youth. She had the graceful slow carriage of p. m., for stock feed of best quality the creole, although her skin was dark-"They call me," she had said to Jack Meredith in her soft, mumbled English a fortnight earlier, "they call me

> The children be had named after his own fantasy, and when she had once seen him with them there was a not-able change in her manner. Her eyes rested on him with a sort of wondering attention, and when she cooked meals or touched anything that was his there was something in her attitude hat denoted special care.

Joseph called her "missis," with a sort of friendliness in his voice which never rose to badinage nor descended o familiarity.

The man who had found the simiaine was eager, restless, full of suspicion. To the others the scheme obviously presented itself in a different light. Jack Meredith was dilettante, light hearted and unsatisfactory. It was impossible to arouse any enthusiasm in him, to make him take it seriously. Guy Oscard was gravely indifferent. He wanted to get rid of a certain space of time, and the African forest, containing as it did the only excitement that his large heart knew, was as good a place as any. The simiacine was, in his mind, relegated to a distant place behind weeks of sport and adventure

"don't seem to take the thing serious "I," answered Meredith, "Intend, at so much stronger and healthier in appearance. Durnovo shook hands heart-all events, to take the profits very seriously. When they begin to come in, J. Meredith will be at the above address, and trusts by a careful attention to business to merit a continuance of your kind patronage."

Durnovo laughed somewhat nervously. Oscard did not seem to hear.

"It is all very well for you," said the half caste in a lower voice. "You have not so much at stake. It is likely that the happiness of my whole life depends upon this venture."

A curious smile passed across Jack Meredith's face. Without turning his head he glanced sideways into Dur novo's face through the gloom. But he said nothing, and it was Oscard who broke the silence by saying simply: "The same may possibly apply to

There was a little pause, during which he lighted his pipe.

It did not seem to occur to any of them that the only person whose individuality was still veiled happened to be Jack Meredith. He alone had said nothing. He it was who spoke first. after a proper period of silence.

"It seems to me." he said. "that we have all the technicalities arranged now. So far as the working of the expedition is concerned we know our places, and the difficulties will be met as they present themselves. But there is one thing which I think we should set in order now. I have been thinking about it while I have been waiting here alone.'

The glow of Victor Durnovo's cigar died away as if in his attention he was forgetting to smoke; but he said nothing.

"It seems to me," Jack went on, "that before we leave here we should draw up and sign a sort of deed of partnership. Of course we trust each other perfectly-there is no question of that. But life is an uncertain thing, as some earlier philosopher said before me; and one never knows what may happen. I have drawn up a paper in triplicate. If you have a match I will read it to you."

Oscard produced a match and, striking it on his boot, sheltered it with the hollow of his hand while Jack ead:

"We, the undersigned, hereby enter into partnership to search for and sell to our mutual profit the herb known as faction of one-hundredth part, to be handed to the servant, Joseph Atkinson. Any further expenses that may be incurred to be borne in the same by the clerk of the boat. fitting out the expedition-namely, two-fifth by Victor Durnovo. "The sum of £50 per month to be paid to Victor Durnovo, wherelinner, with a little nod toward the with he may pay the thirty special men taken from his estate and headquarters at Msala to cultivate the simiacine, and such corn and vegetables as may be required for the sustenance of the expedition; these men to act as porters until the plateau be reached.

"The opinion of two of the three leaders against one to be accepted unconditionally in all questions where controversy may arise. In case of death each of us undertakes hereby to hand over to the executor of the dead partner or partners such moneys as shall belong to him or them." At this juncture there was a little pause while Guy Oscard lighted a second match.

"And," continued Jack, "we hereby undertake severally on oath to hold the secret of the whereabouts of the simiacine a strict secret, which secret may not be revealed by any one of us, to whomsoever it may be, without the sanction, in writing, of the other two partners.'

"There," concluded Jack Meredith, "I am rather pleased with that literary production. It is forcible and yet devoid of violence. I feel that in me the commerce of the century has lost an ornament. Moreover, I am ready to swear to the terms of the agreement." There was a little pause. Guy Oscard took his pipe from his mouth, and while he knocked the ashes out against the leg of his chair he mumbled, "I swear to hold to that agreement."

Victor Durnovo took off his hat with a sweep and a flourish, and, raising his bared brow to the stars, he said: "I swear to hold to that agreement. If I fall, may God strike me dead!"

CHAPTER XI.

THE next morning Jack Meredith was awakened by his servant Joseph before it was fully light. "Woke you before yer time, "There's something sir. ne said. sir."

"Not rebellion?" he said curtly, looking toward his firearms.
"No. sir, not that. It's some mortual vour home . sickness. I don't know what it is. I've been up half the night with them. It's spreadin' too."

"Sickness! What does it seem like? Just give me that jacket. Not that sleoping sickness?" (To be Cx thaned.)

KENTUCKY THIS WEEK. Tonight-Tim Murphy in "Old In

Saturday Matinee and Night- Jane "The Toast of the Old Innocence.

Tim Murphy, Dorothy Sherrod and a most capable company comes to The Kentucky tonight when they will present their successful comedy of some seasons ago "Old Innocence," the piece in which both these clever players have earned unusual distinction, "Old Innocence" is one of the most entertaining plays Tim Murphy has had and the character of Jason Green one of the most fitting characters he has yet impersonated. It gives him every occasion for the expression of his many characteristics and reveals him in exactly the class of work for which he is noted as the part calls for simand gentleness plicity, kindness out question a past master at depicting. His portrayal of "Jason Green" in this comedy was always adds to the development of an artist of his ability undoubtedly his return to the role will show him in a more artistic light even than hereto-

Manager Roberts, of The Kentucky announces for one week starting Monday, the DePew-Burdette Stock prices with ladies free Monday night under the usual conditions if seats are reserved before 6 p. m. of that day. The entire company composing the Messrs. DePew and Burdette support which is one of the largest stock organizations en tour this season, has been selected with great care and consideration. Numerous players of recognized superiority are included in the cast which offers further assurance of thoroughly enjoyable performances. A different play will be presented each night and polite vaudeville will take up the time between the acts.

A Night's Diversion.

While Simple Simon Simple will of comic opera, and perhaps will never enjoy the vogue of "Buster " by reason of the winsometleman, yet the piece serves well for an evening's diversion, and no one who laughs at the foolishness of cause to kick himself afterwards. To employ a phrase adapted from reviews of dramatized novels, the situations follow closely the original text. In other words, the idea of the creator is to present a series of scenes resembling the pictures in the comic supplement and he ceeds in winning many a laugh by the same surprising and ridiculaus methods. In the hands of a less capable company than that in Padueah last night Simple Simon Simple would be a pitiful spectacle. The music is neither of high order, or catchy, but it is not displeasing. A large and good looking chorus is used to an advantage and the principals do clever specialties that help out the three acts. Elongated William Welp, as Simon and the talented dwarf, Jerry D. Sullivan, as Mose, compose a picture to laugh over. A male quartette plays an important part in the singing.

Jane Kennark.

Jane Kennark is announced to appear at The Kentucky Saturday, matinee and night in "The Toast of the Town," Viola Allen's success last season by Clyde Fitch. It is said Miss Kennark has been surrounded by a well balanced company including Carl Anthony, who will play opposite her characterization of Betty Singleton Before beginning his theatrical work, Mr. Anthony was engaged in the newspaper business, being on the staff of the New York Dramatic Mirror for several years. Soon after leaving the newspaper field he wrote and produced "In the Valley of the Genesee," which Aroved a success. In the season of 1901-02 he originated the title role in "The Village Parson," having been associated with Creston Clarke in Shakespearean repertoire previous to that time. At times he has been engaged in stock work. For three seasons he was with Bertha Galland in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" and originated the character role of the president of the United States in "On Satan's Mount" He was later understudy to Loraine in "Man and Superman" and was with Otis Skinner in "The Duel." He has been associated with the following stars; Fay Davis, Bertha Galland, Clara Bloodgood, Otis Skinner, Robert Loraine, Creston a and Orin Johnson. He is an considerable versatility and del hit as the Duke of A in "The Toast of the
